The Cox Family is Moving

Same Lovable Family

We remain the same lovable family: Two parents, who desire to better support their three kids, one handsome son and two beautiful daughters. The kids will continue attending and boarding at Rift Valley Academy (RVA- www.rva.org) in Kenya. Nehemiah - 11th grade, Micah Joy - 9th grade and Miriam - 8th grade.

Same Dynamic Organization

We are still with the same dynamic organization: TWR, www.twr.org. The goal of producing lasting fruit through media with TWR remains unchanged. Our passion is to see the unreached in Africa reached and African believers discipled. i.e. those of you who send checks on our behalf please do not change a thing.

Same Diverse Continent

We will continue ministering to the diverse continent of Africa with TWR, www.twrafrica.org. (For those of you who know the story, this means Paul is not breaking the "pre-nuptial" agreement with Donna. For those who do not know the story just ask.)

Different Country

We are moving to Kenya. After much prayer and discussion with TWR it has been decided that the Cox family will be based in Kenya. Lord willing Donna and Paul will live within 45 minutes of RVA. This will allow them to visit often so that they can support, encourage and attend plays and concerts.

Different Role

Paul will have a new role: Director of Discipleship. This new role accurately catches Paul's passion to see African believers discipled. In this new role, Paul will be working to assure that TWR is attaining its goal to assist the church to make disciples.

During this process we have been encouraged that God has stirred in the hearts of many to pray for us. We praise God that He has allowed the door to open for us to serve from Kenya, to better support our children and to work in the area of discipleship.

Welcome to the Cox Family B&B!

We have had a constant flow of visitors over the last several months. Some were just passing through, some were here for TWR work, and some were here for a little getaway. I would love to mention everyone but it might seem a bit like the list in scripture that we tend to skim or skip. Even so I would like to tell you about two sets of visitors.

In July the Silva family (dad, mom and eight kids) came for two weeks. Amazing!!! We all loved connecting with these longtime friends. It was two weeks of laughter, games, work projects, a few loads of laundry and a bit of cooking (lol) and a cup or two of tea for the moms, engineering projects for the dads and older boys, as well as a road trip to the game park.

Two days after the Silva family left another group of ten came from New Covenant Church in Albuquerque. Their goal was the ministry of presence. They joined in on our existing ministries with a few extras thrown in. Some of the things that took place were a special Kids Club event, helping with Family Fun Day (a yearly event for the missionary kids in Benin and surrounding countries to come together with their families), a tea to minister to missionary ladies, working on solar water pumps, fixing many computers, assisting with water erosion issues, and bringing supplies to many including a hospital.

After these groups left it was just the Cox family for about two weeks before the kids headed back to school. The quietness and lack of activity took a bit of getting used to. The kids are back at RVA.
